

Diploma of Property Services (Agency Management) CPP50307

WHAT CAN I EXPECT FROM A CAREER AS A REAL ESTATE AGENT?

Imagine owning or managing a real estate agency. This is the ultimate goal for many sales representatives and property managers, or business people who recognise the opportunities the real estate profession can provide. Running a business can be a challenging, exhilarating and ultimately a highly rewarding experience. With a broad range of responsibilities encompassing strategic business planning, marketing, risk management and team building, comprehensive training is paramount to success.

NATIONALLY ACCREDITED TRAINING

The Diploma of Property Services (Agency Management) CPP50307 is a nationally recognised qualification and is the minimum requirement for registration as a real estate agent in Tasmania.

TRAINING OUTCOMES

The Real Estate Institute of Tasmania (REIT) is proud to offer the Diploma of Property Services (Agency Management) CPP50307. Endorsed to reflect current industry practices and trends, this extensive course provides a substantial platform of knowledge to manage or open a business, become a partner or simply further your professional development.

STUDY OPTIONS

Students are able to work through their qualification at their own pace through either class based training or distance learning. Students who have been in the industry for some time, and have relevant experience, may apply for recognition of prior learning.

PROGRAM PRE-REQUISITES

In Tasmania it is a legislative requirement that candidates must have at least two years industry experience before completion of the Diploma. Further information can be obtained by contacting the Property Agents Board of Tasmania. Candidates must also possess an adequate written and verbal grasp of the English language, suitable to both the AQF requirements, and the Employability Skills of the qualification they are undertaking. Further information on this is contained in the student information handbook.

COURSE FEES

The Cost of the full Diploma is $5000. Contact the REIT Training Department to discuss payment options and pricing plans.
