

REIT Traineeships

WHAT IS A TRAINEESHIP?

A traineeship is a structured program of training designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills to effectively perform their job. Upon completion, trainees receive a nationally recognised qualification. A real estate traineeship is generally 24 months in duration, and has been created specifically for the real estate profession. You can be assured of quality training, which meets current legislative and best practice requirements preparing you for a successful real estate career.

WHICH TRAINEESHIPS ARE AVAILABLE THROUGH THE REIT?

- Certificate III in Property Services (Agency) CPP30211, suitable for front of house or support person
- Certificate IV in Property Services (Real Estate) CPP40307, with different streams for Property Management, Sales, Office Administrators & people wanting to take their first step towards the Diploma

BENEFITS TO TRAINEE

- Nationally recognised qualification that will enhance your current and future career prospects
- Earn an income whilst training
- Gain real life experience whilst learning
- Government funding may be available to eligible candidates to assist with course fees
- Excellent prospects for continuing employment
- Comprehensive training by industry professionals

BENEFITS TO EMPLOYER

- Employers select their own trainee
- Government incentives may be available for some employers to assist with training costs
- The organisation benefits by having well trained, productive staff members with increased profitability the ultimate goal
- Your staff will be trained by industry specialists in best practice, legislation and practical skills

HOW TO GET STARTED?

Contact the REIT Training Department by phoning (03) 6223-4769 or e-mail patricia.donnelly@reit.com.au

Visit the REIT website at www.reit.com.au