PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Act) allows personal information to be collected, used and disclosed for the purposes for which it was collected, and otherwise in accordance with the Act. This Privacy Policy only applies to the extent The Real Estate Institute of Tasmania (the REIT) collects, uses and discloses personal information. REIT may amend, or amend and restate, this Privacy Policy from time to time and may subsequently notify its Members of any changes to this Privacy Policy by updating it on REIT's website or by other written notification to its Members. Any changes to this Privacy Policy take effect upon the earlier of the update to the website or other notification to its Members.

REIT is a member based organisation whose members are mainly real estate organisations and agents in Tasmania. This Application Form requires certain information including personal information about the Applicant to be collected.

Personal information may be collected during the membership Application and processing stages as well as during the course of the Member's REIT membership (assuming the Application is approved). REIT takes reasonable precautions to protect the personal information it holds from misuse, loss, and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

The information including personal information provided in relation to this Application Form is considered by REIT, including its Membership Team and its Board. If the Applicant is approved for membership (as a Member), REIT may use the information including personal information as required pursuant to the Constitution and By-Laws of REIT and to provide and promote to Members, and to inform Members about, membership products, benefits and services including (without limitation): (a) publications; (b) professional development courses and webinars; (c) to advise of, and prepare for, events; (d) to give to related entities, preferred suppliers, sponsors, contractors or other third parties so that they can provide and supply their required products, services and benefits, or market and promote their own products, services and benefits, to Members of REIT; (e) to process any payment (including without limit the exchange of personal information with the relevant payment provider, where necessary); and (f) as required by applicable laws. Personal information collected about the Applicant may be disclosed by REIT for the purpose for which it was collected to other parties including to members of the Branch committees, third parties providing educational and development courses, preferred suppliers and service providers, sponsors, contractors, relevant payment providers and to any relevant government body or authority or as otherwise required by applicable laws. If the information including personal information is not provided by the Applicant, REIT may not be able to assess and process this Application Form or, if this Application Form is approved, provide products, services and benefits to the Member effectively or at all.

A membership directory is listed on the REIT website for access by consumers and other members of the general public, who may also make general enquiries about a Member and contact a Member with the contact details provided. The membership directory includes limited personal information and contact details of the Member.

If the Applicant is approved (as a Member), REIT may also use the Applicant's information including personal information (but not including any sensitive information) for marketing and research purposes, to analyse and improve products, benefits and services and to inform the Applicant of benefits, products and services provided by REIT, its related entities, preferred suppliers, sponsors, contractors or other third parties which REIT consider may be of value or interest to the Applicant; unless the Applicant tells REIT (see opt out option below) or has previously told REIT not to. If the Applicant does not wish to receive information about products, services or benefits then, to opt-out of receiving that information, please contact the REIT for that purpose at reit@reit.com.au or on (03) 6223-4769. Please allow 10 business days before any opt-out becomes effective.

The Applicant has the right to request access to any personal information held by REIT which relates to them, unless REIT is permitted by law (including the Act) to withhold that information. REIT may charge a reasonable fee where access to personal information is provided. REIT may charge a reasonable fee where access to personal information is provided (no fee may be charged for making an application to access personal information). Any requests for access to the Applicant's personal information should be made in writing to the Privacy Officer (specified below). The Applicant has the right to request the correction of any personal information which relates to them that is inaccurate, incomplete, out-of-date, irrelevant or misleading.

If the Applicant requires any further information about REIT's management of personal information or has any queries or complaints, they should contact:

The Privacy Officer
The Real Estate Institute of Tasmania
33 Melville Street, Hobart TAS 7000 reit@reit.com.au

By signing this Application Form, the Applicant acknowledges that it has read, understands and accepts the terms of this Privacy Policy and the permissions to collect, use and disclose personal information, and the Applicant authorises REIT to collect, use and disclose, in accordance with the Act, their personal information for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy.
