

TASMANIAN REAL ESTATE AGENTS LEADING THE NATION

15 January 2013

The Real Estate Institute of Tasmania CEO Mark Berry is proud to announce the following appointments;

Mr Peter Bushby as National President of the Real Estate Institute of Australia.

Peter has had a distinguished career commencing in Real Estate in 1972 in the Northern Tasmanian market of Launceston and surrounds.

He was a partner in Bushby First National before going it alone in his own boutique agency, Peter Bushby Real Estate.

During that time Peter has served as a Board member of First National Real Estate Group and was involved in the formation of the Professionals in Tasmania.

Peter joined the ranks of the Real estate Institute of Tasmania Board in 2003 serving as President for three years from 2007 to 2010.

In December 2012 Peter was elected President of the Real Estate Institute of Australia

Mr Adrian Kelly, Real Estate Institute of Tasmania President and now Delegate on the Real Estate Institute of Australia Board.

Adrian commenced his career in Real estate 20 years ago with Webster's. Adrian followed the Auctioneering path and was a full time non-property Auctioneer for a number of years, eventually entering into property sales with Roberts Real Estate. Adrian spent 10 years with Roberts and seeing out his final three years as General Manager.

Mr Chris McGregor as President International Real Estate Federation FIABCI Australia.

FIABCI is the French acronym for the International Real Estate Federation. Based in Paris, France, it is a worldwide network open to all professionals involved with the property industry. FIABCI operates Chapters in 50 membership countries including Australia embracing some 3800 individual members.

Chris commenced his career in 1986 and since that time has become Managing Director of McGregor First National in Moonah.

Being an active member in the Real estate Industry Chris has been a member of the Real Estate Institute of Tasmania Board since 1989 and serving as President between 1998 and 2000. He has also served on the Board of the Real Estate Institute of Australia being elected Deputy President in 2009.

It is very clear to see that all three, Peter Adrian and Chris have not only been successful in Real Estate as employees but now as business owners in there own right. They have stepped outside the square and onto State and National Boards to enhance the Industry as a Profession, striving to make the business better not only for those that work in it, but also for those in the real estate market.

It is also pleasing to see such a small state as Tasmania being so well respected that these three are in the upper echelon of the Profession, representing all member Institutes of the Real Estate Institute of Australia and FIABCI members with utmost professionalism and dedication, for most is voluntary and not paid.
